MCHS Archives Library Registration

Boronda Adobe History Center

Welcome to the Gumper-Castro Library of the Boronda Adobe History Center! Access to the Archives Library is open to scholars, researchers, and members of the public with a legitimate research interest, or via a docent-guided tour. As we are a 501(c) 3 California Non-Profit organization, we rely on your contributions and/or nominal fees to maintain our facility.

Registration: All researchers must check in and/or register at the main office upon arrival, providing a valid photo ID. Researchers must complete this registration form as a condition for access to the Archives Library. Appointments: Researchers must make appointments at least one week in advance and may be required to provide a letter of introduction or proof of research intent depending on the sensitivity of those books or documents requested. Photocopying fees and or photo duplication will incur the applicable fees payable to the Monterey County Historical Society, Inc., PO Box 3576, Salinas, CA 93912.
